What a few extra jobs could mean.

An illustration, not a forecast. Every example uses a £127.50 whole job price as a starting point, not an average or a recommended price, and 48 working weeks a year.

One job

Paid to you, before your costs	£108.38
Recovru fee, 15%, VAT included	£19.12
The customer pays	£127.50

Worked out to the penny, as the quote screen does.

One job can cover a month's membership

At £127.50, one job pays you £108.38, more than a £44.99 membership month, before running costs and tax. This is not a break-even point.

A paid year	Jobs	Customers pay	Recovru fee	Paid to you	Membership	Left before costs and tax
Two extra jobs a week	96	£12,240.00	£1,835.52	£10,404.48	£539.88	£9,864.60
One extra job a working day	240	£30,600.00	£4,588.80	£26,011.20	£539.88	£25,471.32
Two extra jobs a working day	480	£61,200.00	£9,177.60	£52,022.40	£539.88	£51,482.52

A paid year is 12 membership payments of £44.99. In a founding first year the first 3 months' membership are at no charge, so membership is £404.91; the fee is taken on every job either way. Fuel, wages, parts costs, insurance, overheads, tax and your own VAT are left out. Prices, demand and costs vary, and Recovru cannot promise any number of jobs or any income. Read the Operator Terms and the Operator Privacy Notice before you apply: recovru.com/legal/operator-terms and recovru.com/legal/operator-privacy. Taking part depends on the current Operator Terms, where customers need operators, membership, our checks, suitable insurance, your vehicle and equipment, when you are online and what you can lawfully do.
